On the topic of "There are no coincidences in politics" Eden Police arrested a man yesterday in connection to a series of threatening incidences involving the family of Erie County Clerk Candidate Melissa Hartman.

Charges lodged in incidents targeting Eden Supervisor Melissa Hartman

Two men were charged this week in separate criminal incidents targeting Eden Supervisor Melissa Hartman and police are investigating how the cases are connected, authorities said Wednesday.

So let's take a closer look at the timeline of "coincidences" between the harassment of the Hartman family and the involvement of some of her more "questionable" political foes including her opponent Mickey Kearns, his political consultant & the EC Conservative Party

While the dispute between neighbors began in the Summer of 2021, it was put into overdrive in early March 2022 Just weeks after Kearns announced he would run in the June Democratic Primary.

Kearns to seek Dem line for clerk; Hartman leaves GOP to challenge

For the first time as Erie County clerk, Michael P. Kearns will seek support from his own Democratic Party as he prepares to run for re-election this year. But he

As it was made public that Kearns would run as a democrat and Hartman would leave the EC GOP, the political attacks began immediately through their newly hired political consultant surrogate Stefan Mychajliw

Zelner acknowledged he had proposed Mary Hosler as this year's candidate for clerk, but that the Evans supervisor opted not to run for family reasons. Now he is excited about Hartman's candidacy.

"She really wanted to do this," he said. "And in contrast to Mickey, she will take politics out of the office."

Hartman, who ran with Conservative support in her last election, said she again will seek the minor party's backing for clerk. She will have no problem running as a Democrat, she said, noting she grew up on the same street as Gov. Kathy Hochul - Long Avenue in Hamburg.

"I'll be very proud to run on the same ticket," she said.

Still, some Democrats are privately grumbling about the party's inability to find a Democrat to challenge Kearns, and photos of Hartman appearing with numerous top Republicans were already making their way across the internet on Tuesday.

Just days after the online attacks by Mychajliw and the Kearns campaign, the harassment of Hartman and her neighbors on Hillbrook drive in Eden continued.

The incidents came to public attention when Hartman revealed someone had thrown a partial pipe bomb through her window at 3 a.m. on March 28.
